Paul's Ponderings...

The Thanksgiving Attitude of Gratitude

The attitude of gratitude is a foundational aspect of our relationship with God. Gratitude is an attitude of the heart that recognizes the goodness of God and the blessings that the Lord grants us. Gratitude is an essential component of a healthy spiritual life, as it keeps us grounded in the reality of God's love and provision in good times and bad.

An attitude of gratitude has the ability to shift our focus from ourselves and our immediate circumstances to God and God's goodness. This shift in focus helps us to maintain a proper perspective on our lives as we recognize that all we have and all we are is a result of God's grace and mercy.

When we purposely practice gratitude it becomes a habit that shapes our thoughts and actions. And, this attitude of gratitude not only enhances our spiritual lives but our physical health as well. As we begin to see the world through the lens of gratitude, most will find that this thankful perspective will impact their overall well-being. Research has shown (For more on this refer to Gratitude by Diana Butler Bass.) that individuals who regularly practice gratitude experience increased happiness, improved mental and physical health, and stronger and more stable relationships.

Gratitude also plays a crucial role in our spiritual growth and development. As we express gratitude to God for the Lord's goodness and blessings, we deepen our relationship with God. As gratitude fosters a sense of humility, we begin to realize our dependence on God and God's provisions for our lives.

Furthermore, gratitude is an essential component in our worship. When we gather together as a community of faith to worship we are expressing our gratitude for who God is and for the things God has done for us through Christ. Our songs of praise, prayers of thanksgiving, and acts of service are all expressions of our gratitude for God's love, mercy, and grace.

Gratitude also serves as a powerful witness to the people around us. As Christians we are called to be salt and light in the world and one of the ways we do this is through our expressions of gratitude. When we live our lives marked by gratitude we demonstrate to others the reality of God's love and the transformative power of the gospel message. Our gratitude serves as a testimony to the goodness of God and invites others to experience God's love and grace for themselves.

Gratitude also has the power to strengthen our relationship with others. When we express gratitude to those around us we are acknowledging their value and worth and demonstrating our appreciation of their presence in our lives. This can foster deeper connections and create a sense of community and belonging. As we practice gratitude in our relationships we are modeling the love and grace of God which can have a profound impact on the lives of those around us.

One practical way to cultivate an attitude of gratitude is through the discipline of daily gratitude journaling. Take a few moments each day to write down the blessings for which you are grateful to God. Another way to foster gratitude in your life is to make a point to intentionally express our thanks to those around us... a simple word of appreciation, a handwritten note, or a small act of kindness. These expressions of gratitude can have a profound impact on our overall well-being, our spiritual growth, and serve as a witness to others of the love and grace of God.

Finally, with our national day of thanksgiving on the horizon, how will you, your family, and your church family choose to practice gratitude this year? Let me make a suggestion. Let's express our gratitude to God by attending the Interfaith Thanksgiving Service on the Sunday of Thanksgiving weekend. Our church has been one of the participants in this service for many years and it is certainly one of the most hope-filled and inspiring services of the church year. This year in the wake of the hostilities between Israel and Palestine it seems that multiple faiths coming together to give thanks to God in worship is of even greater importance than on most Thanksgivings.

This year's Interfaith Thanksgiving Service will be held at the Sandhills Jewish Congregation/Beth Shalom in Foxfire on Sunday, November 19, at 4:00 pm. You are asked to bring a donation of non-perishable food items that will be given to the Sandhills Coalition for Human Care to provide for those in need during the upcoming holiday season.

Let us give thanks to God for all of God's blessings this Thanksgiving as we strive to develop an attitude of gratitude that will last throughout the year.

Peace,
Pastor Paul

Peace in Israel and

"They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain - Isaiah 11:9

God of Comfort,

send your Spirit to encompass all those whose lives are torn apart by violence and death in Israel and Palestine. You are the Advocate of the oppressed and the One whose eye is on the sparrow. Let arms reach out in healing, rather than aggression. Let hearts mourn rather than militarize.

God of Justice,

give strength to those whose long work for a just peace might seem fruitless now. Strengthen their resolve. Do not let them feel alone. Show us how to support their work and bolster their courage. Guide religious leaders to model unity and reconciliation across lines of division. Guide political leaders to listen with their hearts

A Prayer for Peace in Israel and Palestine (cont'd)

God of Love,

we lift up Palestine and Israel - its people, its land, its creatures.
War is a monster that consumes everything in its path.
Peace is a gift shared at meals of memory
with Christians, Muslims, and Jews.
Let us burn incense, not children. Let us break bread, not bodies.
Let us plant olive groves, not cemeteries.
We beg for love and compassion to prevail
on all your holy mountains.

God of Hope,

we lift up the cities of the region; Gaza City and Tel Aviv, Ramallah and Ashkelon, Deir El Balah and Sderot, so long divided,
yet so filled with life and creativity.
Come again to breathe peace on your peoples that all may recognize you.

God of Mercy,

even now work on the hearts of combatants
to choose life over death, reconciliation over retaliation, restoration over destruction. Help us resist antisemitism in all its forms, especially in our own churches. All people, Israelis, and Palestinians, deserve to live in peace and unafraid, with a right to determine their future together.

God of the Nations,

let not one more child or elder be sacrificed on altars of political expediency.
Keep safe all people from unjust leaders who would exploit vulnerability for their own distorted ends.
Give wise discernment to those making decisions to pursue peace.
Provide them insight into fostering well-being, freedom, and thriving for all.
Teach all of us to resolve injustices with righteousness, not rockets.
Guard our hearts against retaliation, and give us hearts for love alone.

Strengthen our faith in you, O God of All Flesh,

even when we don't have clear answers,
so that we may still offer ourselves nonviolently
for the causes of peace.

Amen.

President's Corner

Fall has finally arrived, and though the weather has been beautiful and warm, it is time to move on to a new season. The leaves are finally changing, and on Sunday as a true indication that Fall is here, we fall back an hour to normal time again and get another hour of sleep, YEA!!!

Our Stewardship season is coming to an end, so I want to thank each of you who has completed your Time and Talent sheets helping us identify what areas of the Chapel you are interested in being involved with or supporting. The Stewardship team will review your interests and contact you to discuss how you may become involved. If you have not completed your Time and Talent sheets, please invest a few minutes and do so. You can drop them in the drop box, in the office, or bring them on Sunday and place them in the offering plate.

The Board also wants to thank you for submitting your Pledge sheets. As we have discussed, this is a critical part of the Board's understanding of how we can project our finances for 2024. If you have not submitted your Pledge sheet. I would ask that you prioritize completing and submitting it this week no later than next Sunday. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

The Men's Fellowship invites all the Chapel men to attend our next meeting Saturday morning November 11th at 7:45 in the fellowship hall. We want to build a strong men's fellowship, build our spiritual faith, and offer services to the Chapel membership that they cannot perform while we also support all activities in the Chapel. Please let Susan know in the office if you will be attending on the 11th.

Once again this year there is a Veterans "Wall of Honor" celebration being held November 4th at 2:00 p.m. If you have not been to this event it is wonderful. It honors Veterans in Seven Lakes, living and dead. It also shows off our beautiful cemetery and you can see the four new columbarium's we have installed.

Thank you all for the support you give to the Board and the Chapel. We also miss seeing all of you so we look forward to seeing more of you attending in-person, Sanctuary service in the future.

Thank you,
George Norman – Board President

Team Updates

Mission Team

The Mission Team met on October 13th at 10AM in the Fellowship Hall.

The three-year term for Joyce and Tracey has come to a close and the Mission Team is seeking new leaders to fill these positions. Please keep the team in your prayers as these positions are filled.

It's hard to believe that Christmas is right around the corner! Where has the time gone? Tracey and Joyce will make a presentation to the congregation. Multiple people can go together to support a family in need. Don't feel as though you need to take this on alone. If you would rather give the Mission Team a financial contribution to put toward gifts please do. No amount is too small.

Our 3rd annual Christmas Wrapping party will be held on Friday, December 8th at 10AM in the Fellowship Hall.

Fran's Friends continues to bring the ladies of the Chapel together for wonderful fellowship. As we say, you DO NOT have to drink wine! They have plenty of NON-ALCOHOLIC choices or just bring your own. Snacks are always fun to share, but certainly not required. Please mark your calendars for the FIRST Thursday of every month. We will be changing the time from 2:30 to 3:00.

We have Chapel in the Pines vinyl decals for sale. We are asking for a $5 donation per decal. See Susan in the office to purchase.

Bunco will take place on MONDAY, NOVEMBER 13th at 6PM in the Fellowship Hall. Please mark your calendar as to this change. Moving forward, we will remain playing on the second Tuesday of each month at 6PM.

Worship Team

The month of November opens with a worship opportunity to remember those of our Chapel family who have gone on before us within the past year. Please join us on Sunday, November 5th as we come together on All Saints Sunday to light a candle in their memory.

On Sunday, November 19th the Chapel will have reached our 47th anniversary. A day we will, no doubt, pause to consider with grateful hearts those who came before us to lay the foundation for our Chapel and our place of worship. A fitting time of gratitude, as it is also the week we will celebrate Thanksgiving with family, friends or in simple gratitude for all our blessings. Consider joining in for a time of Interfaith Community Worship on Sunday, November 19 at the Sandhills Jewish Congregation/Beth Shalom in Foxfire at 4 pm.

The last Sunday in November will be Christ the King Sunday, consider joining in for a time of Interfaith Community Worship at the Sandhills Jewish Congregation/Beth Shalom in Foxfire at 4 pm.

Along with the fall worship opportunities comes cooler temperatures, and with the cooler temperatures comes a need in the community for sweaters, socks, blankets, jackets, and gloves. Please consider donating gently used items to The Coalition for Human Care, (See Blanket Drive on page 9) or any charity of your choice. People in need range from infants to seniors, females and males. So if you do your fall house cleaning now, you'll be ready for Christmas!

Thanks for being a warm, loving and giving Chapel family!
Leslie While, Worship Team

Cemetery Team

We have an interment coming up on the 31st of this month at the Chapel in the front Columbarium.

Custom Monuments Company delivered our four new columbarium's and they look wonderful. If you get an opportunity, please stop by the Cemetery and see the new additions.

The Wall Of Honor ceremony is coming up on the 4th of November at the Cemetery. At that time, we will be announcing that we will be offering a military DISCOUNT on all NICHES and GRAVE PLOTS.

Mike Barry
Cemetery Team Chair

Building & Grounds Team

The Building & Grounds Team continues to seek estimates for cost of replacing exterior doors and looking into updated security for Chapel entry.

CITP Men's Fellowship

Last Spring a small group of CITP men reorganized the Men's Fellowship and started meeting once a month. During the following months the membership has grown and at our August meeting the men confirmed the officers as follows: President - Bruce Keyser, Vice President - Wayne Garland, Secretary - Dick Van Horne, and Treasurer - George Norman. We also adopted a purpose to "grow spiritually, mentor each other and offer service to others as needed". To this purpose, the men will continue to meet the second Saturday of each month at 7:45 AM for coffee, snacks and fellowship; followed by a time of devotion, prayer and planning. It is our intent to offer our services to those in the congregation who may need assistance with small jobs or advise on projects. To this purpose, individuals need to contact Susan at the office and request assistance. Susan will then contact one of the officers, who will contact the individual to discuss a resolution. We hope to see our fellowship grow in numbers and spirit and invite anyone interested to join us the second Saturday of each month at 7:45 AM.
