

The Final Days; A Lenten Journey through the Gospels

The four New Testament gospels aren't the same story, but they offer the same resurrection hope!

The authors of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John devote a great portion of their gospels to telling the story of Jesus' last week in Jerusalem. All of them highlight Jesus' passion, but the stories they tell aren't quite the same. Each gospel offers a different lens through which we might understand the events of Jesus' final days. These different perspectives aren't a reason to question or dismiss the gospels, rather they reveal an abundant, diverse, and complementary picture of God's purposes in the suffering, death, and resurrection of Christ.

You are invited to this small group Bible study so that together we might engage with the tension and beauty found within the diverse perspectives of the gospels as we recall Jesus' final days.

Session #1 - Meet You at the Flagpole

Session #2 - Looking for a Messiah

Session #3 - The Passion According the Mark - "Yes, I am"

Session #4 - The Passion According to Matthew - "You have said so..."

Session #5 - The Passion According to Luke - A New Covenant to Remember

Session #6 - The Passion According to John - A Word that Weeps

This study will meet on consecutive Thursday afternoons at 3:30 for 75 minutes beginning on March 6th. The lessons are based on a book by Matt Rawle who is an author, an international speaker, and the Lead Pastor of Asbury UMC in Bossier City, Louisiana. The class is limited to 18 persons (if I receive more than 18 registrations I will open a second class). A $10.00 donation is suggested...but not required...to cover the cost of the teaching materials.

Because Matt has done such a thorough job with the production of the videos that accompany each session there will be no need for you to purchase his book.

Everyone is invited so please invite family, friends, and neighbors to join us. Please register by March 2nd by filling out this form and dropping it in the offering plate or by giving Susan a call in the Chapel office. (910) 400-5188

Name: _____

Email address: _____